The Jihad of the Believers is Continuing

The Islamic State stated, in its official audio statements, videos, and other media releases, that, by the grace of Allah, it is on its way to advancement, and its jihad is continuing. These phrases are not mere slogans and empty words to fill its official statements. Rather, it is a firm belief that hardly changes. And there is ample religious evidence to emphasize it, and history also gives testimony to the same. The Holy Qur'an indicates the progress of jihad due to the existence of religious justifications, where Allah ﷻ revealed that the kuffar will not cease to fight against Islam until the Day of Judgment. Allah ﷻ said: "And they will not cease to fight against you until they turn you back from your faith if they can" (Al-Baqarah: 217).

The eternal war between Islam and kufr will continue, and the only religious form for manifesting this inevitable battle is the jihad for the sake of Allah. It can be also understood from the verses of the Qur'an, where Allah ﷻ said: "Indeed, Allah has bought from the believers their souls and their properties, so that Paradise maybe for them. In this way, they fight in the path of Allah, so they kill, and they are killed" (At-Tawbah: 111). Therefore, this is a beneficial deal between Allah ﷻ and His faithful servants. This transaction is done to grant them Paradise in exchange for killing and being killed in the way of Allah until the Day of Judgment.

The prophetic Hadiths also indicate the continuation of jihad. Imam Muslim narrated in his Sahih that the Prophet ﷺ said: "The one through whom Allah wants to do good in His religion gives him the jurisprudence of the religion, and a group of Muslims will constantly keep fighting for the truth until the Day of Resurrection and they will enjoy victory over their enemies." Consider how the Messenger of Allah ﷺ correlated jurisprudence of the religion and jihad! How correct this narration was! "No one understands the Qur'an like a mujahid, and no one understands the religion like a mujahid." The mujahidin are the most knowledgeable jurists, and it is enough for their jurisprudence that they have understood the religion. And about this matter, Imam Bukhari and Muslim recorded the narration by Urwa ibn Ja'd (may Allah be pleased with him) on the authority of Prophet ﷺ that: "Goodness is placed on the forelocks of horses and that is - reward and booty." Hafidh ibn Hajar mentioned in "Fath ul-Bari" regarding the explanation of this Hadith: "This Hadith gives glad tidings that Islam and Muslims will exist till the Day of Judgment, as jihad will be continuing and so will the mujahidin. Imam Nawawi mentioned in the explanation of this Hadith: "Ibn Jarud brought this Hadith in the chapter: 'Continuation of Jihad till the Day of Judgment' of "al-Muntaqi"."

And for this reason, the leaders of the Islamic State announce with firm determination that it will remain till the Day of Judgment, as jihad is the secret of its remaining, the jihad that involves the implementing of the Shari'ah, protecting the religion, supporting the faith, giving shelters to the Muslims, da'wah, befriending the Muslims, and keeping enmity with the kuffar.

If we turn the pages of Islamic history, we will find many manifestations of the continuation of jihad, from the time of the Prophet ﷺ to the time of the Rashidin Khulafah, Tab'yin, Tab' Tab'yin, and so on. We can observe a series of jihadi formations and jihadi caravans in each era. Not a single period of Islamic history was deprived of jihad for the sake of Allah. Instead, jihad has been carried out under the leadership of every imam, no matter if he was a righteous one or an immoral one. If we look at the advancement of jihad in the modern time, we will see how the Islamic State in Iraq has been plagued by a lot of conspiracies and atrocities in their confrontations with the Crusaders, the murtadd Brotherhood, and the murtadd Rafidis as they formed coalitions against it, and conspired against it to the extent that the hearts of the mujahidin reached their throats. They plotted against the Islamic State and fought against it, but it was not long before the Islamic State got stronger and more determined than ever, and it continued the advancement of its jihad until it reached Sham. It broke the laws of the unbelievers and murtaddin and shattered their dreams of stopping the advancement of jihad. And after many years of patience and perseverance, it finally managed, by the success of Allah, to establish the religious obligation of the Khilafah, leaving behind all other so-called jihadi groups which not only lagged behind but also lost track in reality.

The Islamic State declared the Khilafah upon prophetic method. Accordingly, the Romans, Magus, the murtaddin, and the munafiqin took part in a disgraceful competition for overthrowing this blessed state, which revealed the true color of these factions and parties to the Islamic Ummah. These are the groups that preferred discord with the Islamic State, refused to accept it, fought against it, conspired against it, and made alliances with Shaytans against it! So Allah ﷻ took revenge on all of them, as none of the groups that fought against the Khilafah remained. Rather, Allah ﷻ punished them and did not let them achieve their goal. Many of them are extinct and no one even mentions their names, while some are divided into small groups that do nothing but spit at one another and kill each other. On the other hand, the Islamic State, by the grace of Allah, remained steadfast and consistent, clinging to the Book and the Sunnah, continuing its jihad under one Imam and with one Manhaj. At present, owing to its survival in the advancement of jihad, owing to its declaration of the Khilafah, and owing to the implementation of Shari'a, the Islamic State has been going through many hardships and tribulations. The Crusaders have formed international coalitions against them, in which all the pagan governments have been working openly and having the Jews behind them working secretly! They started a world war on the land of the Khilafah. And after losing the ability to confront the heroes of the Khilafah face to face, they started blindly bombarding the Khilafah-controlled territories. They could not make any tremendous progress without cowardly bombardment. Then they announced dozens of times "the end and disappearance of the Islamic State!" But it was not long before the Islamic State healed its wounds and renewed its jihad. After going through these hardships, the Islamic State spread its jihad from East Asia to Central Africa, West Africa, the Sahel, and many other areas, which are now like the bricks of the Khilafah palace and run at the behest of a single Imam. We saw the advancement of jihad shortly before in the Battle of Ghuwayran, how the lions of al-Baghouz participated and how they embraced the hot battlefield. Those are the people of al-Baghouz about whom the Crusader media would always say "they regret jihad," trying to whisper in the minds of Muslims and thwart the jihadi caravan. But Allah ﷻ made all their efforts in vain and futile, and the lions of al-Baghouz performed such a feat in which they showed to the whole world that the passion, jihad, and stability of the believers are ever-continuing.

In this way, the mills of the Islamic State are turned, bringing good to the faithful generation and misfortune to the mushrikin everywhere and breaking their bones. It's a fantasy of the kuffar and murtadd about ending the advancement of jihad as they always spread the rumor that they have eliminated the frontlines of the mujahidin and the imaginary lines of the mujahidin have been divided into several groups! But soon, they laugh at themselves and pass the last words over! They say that the findings show that three, four, or five people are still left on the frontline! They try to deny their confession by saying: "The lines of the mujahidin have not dried up." And how can it be dried up whose foundations are the Qur'an and the Sunnah? The mujahidin are all people on the frontline. They are the best people of the Ummah, they are the guardians of the highest seat of the religion, their scholars are the best of the scholars, their fighters are the best of the fighters and their leaders are the best of the leaders. They are the first and foremost among the people in science, knowledge, action, da'wah, jihad, fighting, and martyrdom. We consider them as well, and Allah ﷻ will judge them.

Jihad has made it necessary for all Muslims (mujahidin, supporters, or commoners) to be prepared to work for the advancement of it and take responsibility for it. Since it is necessary to renew one's intentions and purify the same for the sake of Allah, Muslims must renew, accelerate and expand their activities. They should advise each other in patience and truth. They should console each other through the verses of the Qur'an, Hadiths, and the rewards that Allah ﷻ has prepared for those who follow this Holy path of the Prophets, because the one who knows the reward, all hardships will be easy for him. And surely Allah ﷻ assists those who assist the religion of Allah. And all praise is due to Allah, the Lord of all creation.

Ibnul Qayyim (may Allah have mercy on him) said:

"Many people think that there is no difference between courage and strength, while both are two different attributes, because courage is the endurance of the heart in time of adversity by force, although having weakness in strength like in the case of Abu Bakr Siddiq (may Allah be pleased with him) who was the bravest one in the entire Ummah after the messenger of Allah ﷺ, although Umar and other companions were stronger than him. Even at the toughest situation in which even mountain will crumble, he was the most steadfast of all the companions and he was most steadfast one in heart and broad-chested. Even the brave and heroic companions would seek refuge with him, so he would speak to them of perseverance and give them inspiration.

Our Predecessor in Ramadan

2 Offered Nightly Prayer

All praise is due to Allah the Lord of knowledge and prayer and peace be upon our Prophet Muhammad the best one in prayer and fasting, and on His family and companions, on them who reached perfection in worship, and on them who followed them.

The nights of Ramadan are like fragrant and musk falling on the people of the earth throughout this blessed month, and the nightly prayer of Ramadan is like luminous light. In this month, mercy roams among the obedient believers whose feet stand firmly before their Lord, whose hearts are humbled, and whose tears are inundated in the hope for acceptance and success. Sins are forgiven, souls are freed, status are upheld, and amazing are the prayers of the righteous ones to their Lord, amazing is the return of them to their Lord. Those are the ones who spend part of their nights in prostrating and standing in front of their Lord in prayer, and those are the ones who hasten to good deeds and outstrip others therein.

The Nightly prayer has been the practice of the righteous ones from this Ummah and of those who followed them, and it emits a light by which Allah enlightens the hearts of the pious, and it eases the horrors of the Hereafter. Allah ﷻ says: "And prostrate yourselves before Him for a part of the night. Verily, these (disbelieving people) love the present transient life and neglect very hard day (which lies) ahead of them." [al-Insan: 26-27]

Allah ﷻ praised the people offering the Nightly prayer and promised them what would please their eyes, and He ﷻ describes their condition: "They arise from [their] beds; they supplicate to their Lord in fear and aspiration, and they spend out of that which We have provided them." [as-Sajdah: 16]

Night prayer helps in carrying heavy duties

Night prayer is one of the invisible secrets of the worshippers and among the reasons for the steadfastness of the hearts as it assists them in carrying heavy duties, and Allah ﷻ said to His Prophetﷺ : "O you who wraps himself [in clothing]! Stand up (in Prayer) except for a small portion of it, Half of it or you may however reduce it a little, Or prolong it (a little more) and keep on reciting the Qur'an distinctly and thoughtfully well. Verily, We are soon going to charge you with the enormous and important responsibility (of conveying to people) the message (of your Lord)." [al-Muzzammil: 1-5]

Ikrimah said: "This means that the work (Prophetic work) involves getting up at night in prayer, and there is a sign from Allah in the remembrance of day and night for them who try day and night to spread His religion. Lying down in a small part at night, as it is necessary, is the sign of Tazmal which has been authorized for the Prophet ﷺ as a kindness for Him. The words of the polytheists caused Him some pain, and He ﷻ wrapped himself in His own clothes, so Allah

Nightly prayer is needed for the Mujahideen

The monotheists, who hold the responsibility of upholding the religion, are the most in need of the Nightly prayer. Those, who are the protectors of the religion, need the Qiyam in the middle of the night so that Allah lights their way, helps them to be steadfast, and forgives their sins because the good deeds take away the bad deeds, and hence, the Nightly prayer is a reason for the forgiveness of sins. Abi Amamah Albaheli (may Allah accept him) narrated on the authority of the Prophet ﷺ: "Hold fast to Qiyam Al-Lail, for it is the practice of the righteous ones before you, and indeed Qiyam Al-Lail is a means of nearness to Allah, a means of prevention from sin, an expiation for bad deeds, and a barrier for the body against disease." And Allah has prepared for them, who offer the Nightly prayer, dwellings in Heaven that they may enjoy. Abu Malik Al-Ash'ari (may Allah be pleased with him) narrated on the authority of The Messenger of Allah ﷺ: "Indeed in Paradise, there are chambers, whose outside can be seen from their inside, and their inside can be seen from their outside, for those who speak well, feed others, fast regularly, and perform Salah [for Allah] during the night while the people sleep." [Ahmad]

And it is the best of the Nawafel prayers according to Abi Hurairah (may Allah be pleased with him) who narrated on the authority of The Messenger of Allah ﷺ: "The most excellent after the prescribed prayer is a prayer offered in the middle of the night."

Since the Nightly prayer is so praiseworthy even in other months except Ramadan, the necessity of it in the Ramadan is even more, for great reward was mentioned for it. Narrated by Abu Hurairah (may Allah be pleased with him) on the authority the Messenger of Allahﷺ : "Whoever fasted the month of Ramadan out of sincere Faith (i.e. belief) and hope for a reward from Allah, all his past sins will be forgiven, and whoever stood for the prayers in the night of Qadr out of sincere Faith and hope for a reward from Allah, all his previous sins will be forgiven." [Muttafiqun Alaihi]. The Prophet ﷺ also urged the Tarawih prayer as He ﷺ said: "Indeed, whoever stands (praying) with the Imam until he finishes, it is recorded for him that he prayed the whole night." [an-Nasa'i]

As for the meaning of Tarawih linguistically, it is: "The plural of Tarweehah, which means "one time of rest", it was called that because people used to take a long time in standing, kneeling, and bowing when they pray, so when they offer four Raka't salah, they rested for a while and offer another four Raka't, then they rested, then they prayed the third time." [Lisan ul Arab]

The Prophet ﷺ used to prolong reciting during Ramadan prayer at night more than anyone else, and Hudhaifah (may Allah be pleased with him) prayed with him a night in Ramadan as he said: "So, Heﷺ recited al-Baqara, then an- Nisa', then al-i-'Imran, and every time He ﷺ read an intimidating verse, He ﷺ stopped and supplicate." [Reported by Muslim]

The Nightly prayer of the predecessors in Ramadan

And as we may learn about the Nightly prayer of our righteous predecessors in Ramadan, we should follow their good deeds. Al-Sa'ib bin Yazid said: "Umar bin Al-Khattab (may Allah be pleased with him) ordered Ubai bin Kaab and Tamim Ad-Dari (may Allah be pleased with them) to pray the Nightly prayer with the people in Ramadan. The Imam would recite two hundred verses in a Raka'h until we had to take support of sticks due to the prolonged standing, yet we didn't leave until the sunrise." [Reported by al-Bayhaqi]. And Malik narrated from Abdullah bin Abi Bakr: "I heard my father says: 'We used to leave from Nightly prayer in Ramadan and rush to the servants to hurry with the food fearing the sunrise.'" [Reported by Malik in Al-Muwatta]. And narrated by Abu Othman al-Nahdi: "Umar (may Allah be pleased with him) commanded three reciters to lead prayer in Ramadan, then he commanded the fastest of them to recite thirty verses, he commanded the average of them is to recite twenty-five verses, and he commanded the slowest of them to recite with twenty verses." [Narrated of Abdur Razzaq in al-Musannaf]. And Yazid Bin Khasfa narrated on the authority Al-Saeb Bin Yazid that he said: "They were performing 20 Raka't during the era of Umar bin al-Khattab in the month of Ramadan. And they used to recite two hundred verses in a Raka'h, and they were leaning on their sticks during the reign of Uthman bin Affan from the severity of standing." [Reported by al-Bayhaqi]. And narrated by Daoud bin Al-Husni on the authority of Abd al-Rahman bin Hormuz that he said: "The reciters used to recite Surah al-Baqarah in eight Raka't, and when they did that twelve Raka't, people thought that it has been eased for them." [Narration of al-Bayhaqi]. Nafi' said: "Ibn Umar (may Allah be pleased with them both) would stand in prayer in his house in the month of Ramadan when people would leave from the mosque, he would take an instrument of water, and then he would go out to the mosque of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ , then he would not come out the till the morning." [Narration of al-Bayhaqi] Narrated by Nafi' bin Umar bin Abdullah that he said: "I heard Ibn Abi Malikah saying: 'I used to lead prayer to the people in Ramadan, I recited in one Raka'h (Alhamdulillah Fatir) or recitation equivalent to that, and nobody said that it was too much.'" [Narration of Ibn Abi Shayba].

Narrated by Abd as-Samad on the authority of Abu al-Ashhab, that he said: "Abu Raja' used to complete the whole of the Qur'an with us in performing Ramadan prayers for every ten days". Imam al-Bukhari, the owner of as-Sahih, used to complete the whole of the Qur'an in Tarawih in every three days, and al-Hafiz Al-Dhahabi mentioned about Abi Muhammad al-Labban said that he was in Baghdad during the entire month of Ramadan in the year of 427 Hijri, he would lead the Tarawih prayer for the people, and when he would finish it, he would still pray in the mosque until sunrise, and when he would finish praying, he would teach his companions. He used to say: 'I did not lie down day and night to sleep all this month.'" [Tarikh ul Islam]

A reciter should recite the Qur'an in a beautiful tone, supplicate to Allah ﷻ at the verses of mercy, seek refuge in Allah ﷻ at the verses of torment, stop at the end of the recitation, and ponder over the meanings. Narrated by Maymun bin Mahran (may Allah have mercy on him): "I saw the reciter reciting fifty verses as people used to say: 'recite less'. And I saw the reciter reciting, in Ramadan, the whole of a story whether short or long. I got chilled whenever heard him reciting (And when it is said to them, "Do not cause corruption on the earth," they say, "We are but reformers) on the first Raka'h, and then (not of those who have evoked Your anger or of those who are astray. Unquestionably, it is they who are the corrupters) on the second Raka'h." [Qiyam Ramadan lil-maruzi]

As we learn about the condition of righteous predecessors, we will realize the reason for the acceleration of conquests during their time, and we will understand the interpretation of the greatness of their actions and the reasons for the collapse of kingdoms of the unbelievers before them. They were the generation of the Qur'an, and if there is a generation that worships like that in Ramadan, no enemy, no matter how huge they are in number, will be able to stand in front of them for it is the worship, jihad, knowledge, and deeds after the declaration of monotheism that bring about great advancement in changing the state of this Ummah.

So start over and march forth for the days are few. That will bring victory, and the regretful ones will weep. Those who speed up and those who slow down are not equal. Al-Hasan al-Basri said: "Allah ﷻ does not make a slave, who was speeding to him, as equal as a slave who is slower." [az-Zuhd lil-Imam Ahmad] How much time has been wasted by the young Muslims in sinful talks and gatherings, and time has been lost with no benefit, Ibn al-Qayyim (may Allah have mercy on him) said: "Wasting time is worse than death because wasting time cuts you off from Allah ﷻ and the home of the hereafter while death will separate you from the world and its people." [Al-Fawa'ed]

Leave anything but Allah aside and keep standing in the Nightly prayer in front of Allah ﷻ as long as it can be afforded for hearts do not become healthy except through the fatigue of the body.

O Muslim! You have learned about the condition our righteous predecessors, so choose the supreme path. Supplicate to Allah ﷻ that He ﷻ may guide us, with his generosity, to follow the path of the righteous predecessors and to help us in remembrance, thankfulness, and worship of Him. And our last prayer is that all praise is due to Allah, the Lord of the worlds.
